

We have been working with the North Central Career Center since we opened our facility last September, 2011. This partnership has proven to be an effective component in our recruiting process. The Career Center has provided us access to candidates looking for work, and has been great at pre-screening based on our needs- saving both time and energy. I recommend these services to any employer in this area, as an important part of their talent recruitment effort.

-Tom McMullen, Executive Director
Heywood Wakefield Commons